JOANNA LOU BOSTIAN
Mascot.

MARGARET AMELIA LITAKER
RED "C"

"A quite and sympathetic girl."
Amelia is a loyal member to the class. Amelia is a quite girl, but a girl who makes many friends as is often the case.

CHARLES ALEXANDER BROWN
"I am a man more sinned against, than sinning."

Well, Charlie is just Charlie and will always be the same no doubt. He has been a star athlete in Farm Life line-up for the past two years.

NETTIE REMELLE MORGAN
"PREACHER"

"Love will conquer at the last."
Nettie has made a fine record as a student at Farm Life—and let us say that we are expecting her to finish her life's work as a Co-work with a Methodist preacher. Don't disappoint us, Nettie.

AGNES FAY SILLIMAN

"True humility, the highest virtue, mother of them all."

Agnes is a fine type of student and very humble and unassuming about the honors that are hers. Agnes is as unselfish a girl as you would expect to find anywhere.

REBECCA SLOOPE—"BECKIE"

"With a lovable and generous disposition."

Rebecca is a loyal senior always willing to do what she can to help her class whether the job be easy or hard.

SUSIE BAYNES BRUMLEY
"SUSANNA"

"Eyes so bright, laughs so gay, heart pure gold, that's Sue I'd say."

Look this old world over and you will never find another Sue Capable; yes, very much so and faithful always to the task she has to do. She has gained a lot by exercising the unusual power of attending to her own business.

SUMMEA RACHEL SLOOPE
"SLOOPE"

"Being in love is the best of all
The pleasure I recall."

Rachel has made us all love her in the one short year we have known her. We won't forget you, Rachel.

ELOISE LANDERS—"SQUEEZE"

"Leave silence to the saints, I am but human."

Eloise is always ready to go with the majority, whether it is her own will or not. Eloise is not afraid of hard work and her faithful service to others here in school has made her many life-long friends.

HARRY BENARD JULIAN—"BUCK"

"Go where he will the wise man is at home."

"Buck" is our popular man. He is just plain cute and the good part about it is that he doesn't seem to know it. Buck has done a mighty lot of hard work for the class of '27. He is always ready to work, then work some more in his own good natured way.

PAULINE ELIZABETH WALLACE
"POLLY"

"I would not grow so fast, because sweet flowers are slow, and weeds grow fast."

Pauline is a tiny member, but certainly a very dear one. The best we can say is that we could never have done without her.

ALLIE MARGARET GOODNIGHT
"GOOD-NITE"

"Love me little and love me long."

Margaret is out to make some man a good wife. She certainly can cook things to eat and make pretty dresses.

The Harrot

CAMILLE McCORKLE ALEXANDER
"CORN-MEAL"

"I have a mind of my own and will not be persuaded."

Camille has added a great deal to the Senior class in the way of originality, and personality; meaning that Camille has her own way of doing things which is usually a pretty good way and always different.

LOMA CATHERINE SLOOPE
"CLARENCE"

"Kind, generous, and thoughtful too."

You may always count upon Loma to show the very finest spirit in every thing and in every way. Her record as a student is enviable, and so is her record as a lady.

RUTH SALOME SMITH—"SHOT-GUN"

"The worst fault you have is to be in love."

Star salesman of the Senior class. When the "Staff" offered a free annual to anyone who would sell ten, Ruth was the first to present her ten subscriptions. She can be commended for many things but her perseverance "can't be beat."

BEULAH VERNON HURLEY—"BOOTS"

"She looks stunning, but always cunning."

Beulah Vernon is our star history pupil. When it comes to war and "Dates" she won't be lacking.

MARY KATHRYNE UPRIGHT—"KAT"
"Can a woman's silence be natural."

Kathryne loves to recite and she has done a lot along that line since she has been in High School.

WILLIAM ARCHIE GRAHAM—"ARCH"
"The great end of life is not knowledge but action."

Archie is one of Rowan's most up-to-date farmers. No old fashioned methods with him, Archie's brain has already told him that such don't pay. Archie has a great many friends, perhaps due to his splendid attitude toward work and play.

GLADYS IRENE TREXLER—"TRES"
"I am a part of all that I have met."

Gladys has always been a good student. She does her work well and seems to love to do it.

ETHER LUANNA SHUPING—"TETE"
"To be good rather than to be conspicuous."

Ether has been with us this year. The way she has fitted in with the class is certainly commendable.

DORIS CORNELIA MILLER—"DOT"

"There's mischief in her eyes."

Doris is pretty and sweet and who would not love her? Doris is a girl with a fine future before her. We are expecting her to succeed in whatever she undertakes.

GRACE VIRGINIA WALKER—"RED"

"Thy modest is a candle to thy merit."

Grace is faithful to the task she has to do, but she is mighty, mighty quiet about it.

MARTHA ELIZABETH ALBRIGHT
"CHARLIE"

"A merry heart goes a long ways."

When there is a task for Martha to do she never rests until she has given that task full share of her energy and time. That spirit of doing things certainly predicts a successful life for Martha.

PHILLIP EDWARDS DEAL—"T"

"He has a way with the wimmin."

Phillip is China Grove's shiek. The ladies all love "Tee" and he loves them back. "Tee" can sing and act; these talents have made him a useful member.

MABEL LOUISE DAVIS—"DOLLY"

"A heart to restore, a head to contrive and a head to execute."

Mabel is that full lady like, and capable girl as you will find anywhere. Her scholaristic record is one to be proud of. She has shown herself capable of being a good leader as well as a good follower.

LUCY MARGARET HARRIS—"LUCY"

"She dwells in a world of music, to her
it is an art."

Lucy Margaret is our Galli-Curci. She also has made herself a valuable asset to the class by the good spirit she has shown on all occasions.

JOHN DOWIE STONER—"STONER"

"All things come around to him, who will but wait."

Dowie is a faithful, hard working boy who has always attended to his own affairs and duties.

MARY HOPE RITCHIE

"Never idle a moment but thrifty and thoughtful of others."

Hope has been with us for only one year, but we have been mighty fortunate to have her for even that short time. Hope is a good student and a good Senior.

CLAUDIUS GILBERT LIPE
"SILENCE"

"Men of few words are the best men."

Claudius is a quiet boy and we hardly ever hear him express himself, yet his teachers will tell you that he always presents good work.

HELEN ISABELLE BOST—"HECK"

"Let knowledge grow from more to more."

Helen is a late comer in our class, but she has won a place that is all her own. She is an excellent student, always eager to learn more than is required just to get by.

DOY AYCOCK EDWARDS

"I count life just a stuff to try the soul's strength on."

Doy is our original boy. You can count on him to answer the unexpected any old time. Doy has brains and rarely ever wastes any of his intellect, but uses it when necessary, and when he can profit by it.

MARY BELLE ATWELL—"MT. ELLA"

"She's not a flower, she's not a pearl, but she's a noble all round girl."

Mary Belle has always been a faithful, useful, and cheerful member of this class of '27. That's a lot to say, but nevertheless it is literally true.

HUBERT VERN PARK—"MIDGET"
"Brevity is the soul of wit."

Hubert Park has always been an outstanding student. He has also been very useful to the class in all its activities. Hubert can be counted upon always.

LUCILLE BARBARE TEMPLETON
"LUKE"

"I'll not budge an inch."

Lucille is just Lucille. We don't expect anything else and the long and short of it is we don't want anything else, and love her just as she is.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

As we have reached the highest rank—graduation—that is obtainable in high school we feel that we have won a great victory. We pause a moment before we begin our journey anew for a view of the events that have occurred during the fight. It is like standing on top of a mountain after we have reached the summit. The way was rough and there were many obstacles in the way that we felt we could not overcome, but looking at them after we have reached the top it is different. The way no longer looks rough but now it appears smooth, the mountains seem to be only little elevations. Now we realize that it would be a pleasure to have the privilege of traveling the same path—our high school days—again.

In the fall of nineteen hundred and twenty-three we gathered at Farm Life School from all sides, some coming from the sunny farms in Rowan and surrounding counties, and others from small towns. It is useless to say that we were "green," because all Freshmen bear that mark. There were eighty of us in the class. When school closed in the spring we were anxious for the summer months to pass so we could return and this time be above the Freshmen.

We came storming in the next fall as if we owned the whole place. When Mr. Jones needed any brass he always called on the Sophomores where he was sure to find it. We had lots of good times together that year, one of our outstanding occasions being the party we gave in honor of the Seniors.

The next fall we came back feeling that we had more work to accomplish as we had reached our Junior year.

During the Christmas holidays the members of our class were very much saddened by the death of our class president, Mack Caldwell.

We owe much to our adviser, Miss Current, for the wonderful success of the Junior-Senior Banquet which was the most important occasion of the year in the way of social life. We received many compliments at commencement when we presented "Honor Wins."

Now we are Seniors! However we have found out that we do not know as much as we thought we did when we were Sophomores. Some of our members have left us and others have been won to our side since the first year.

There have been many changes and improvements made during our stay. The administration building was erected in the summer of twenty-four. The old barn was remodeled and is now the agricultural building. This year we have a new Superintendent—in fact two, however, one has been with us several years—and with him new rules and regulations. At present we have enough faith to say that by spring we will have a gymnasium which will add greatly to our school.

It is finished and we bid classmates adieu.

—Sue Brumley.

Predictions of The Class of 1927

Once upon a time there lived a little girl who wished that she might have some of the experiences that happened to her beloved characters in Arabian Night Tales. When she was young she would "make believe" she was the sleeping princess, Little Red Riding Hood, or any of the many, many delightful people in these Fairy Tales.

As she grew older she still dreamed of some wonderful unusual experience happening to her. She would sit and dream of the day when she would "grow up" and be a young lady. The dearest of all her belongings was to finish school and be class prophet.

Imagine her surprise and joy when she learned that she was to be class prophet. As you have already guessed, I was the Lucky girl and while I appreciated the honor given me, I found the task to be much harder than I had anticipated. The more I thought the more confused my ideas became, until I began to think my dream would have to go unfulfilled, I went home for the Christmas holidays, arriving late in the afternoon of a rainy, dismal cold day.

There is an old lady, Mrs. Castleberry, who lives in a poorly furnished room, on a street, not far from my home. She was extremely wealthy "before the war" as she expresses it, and is one of the most interesting characters that I have ever known.

Christmas day dawned bright and clear and everybody seemed filled with the Christmas Spirit. After dinner I fixed a tray and went over to Mrs. Castleberry's, when I got there I found her sitting in a cold cheerless room and she seemed to appreciate my coming to see her more than she did the food and fruit I brought her.

We sat and talked. She telling me of the Christmases of long ago when she was the happy mistress of a beautiful home and had her loved ones with her. "They are all gone," she said, "and all I have left are memories with which to feed my starved soul."

"But," she added looking at me with her bright eyes, "you have been mighty sweet to me child, and I would like to show my appreciation, but I have no money. I can only give you an old woman's blessing—and read the tea leaves for you."

I must have shown my astonishment because she answered my question before I could ask it, saying, "Bring me some tea and hand me my glasses, they are in my Bible. Then after I drink the tea I will read the future for you."

I instantly thought of my class prophecy and asked her if she would help with it. She answered, "Now, I do not know whether I can tell you much that will help, but I will try."

I made the tea, lighted the fire, and was ready to speak when Mrs. Castleberry said, "Draw your chair up and I will tell you what I see in the tea leaves."

"First, I see your classmate Lucy Margaret Harris winning fame both in America and abroad with her wonderful voice."

"I seem to see a group of people who are bringing joy and gladness into many young children's hearts. Yes, the vision clears, it is Phillip Deal's and Carlton Kinlaw's camp for crippled children. Their three able assistants are: Mary Belle Atwell, Martha Albright and Grace Walker.

Within the past ten years we have had two outstanding evangelists. Both have done untold good, but I see two of your classmates, Stephen Sloop and

The Parrot

Dowie Stoner, rising to even greater fame. Stephen will become the beloved president of the Moody Bible School and Dowie will step into Billy Sunday's place and attain a popularity second to none. He will be assisted in this noble work by Agnes Silliman.

Camille Alexander will attend Emerson's School of Expression. She will finish her course and have a bright future before her as a lyceum entertainer but will give up her career to become the bride of her dramatic teacher, and will live in Boston."

Mrs. Castleberry paused here and sat deep in thought. Finally she spoke saying, "Pauline Wallace has a marked talent for artistic work and she will become an interior decorator with a suite of offices in the Flat Iron building in New York City."

"Eloise, you will have the pleasure of going, some day, through the plant of the Atlanta Journal as the guest of Mable Davis as she will be the editor-in-chief of that widely read newspaper."

"My leaves now show me John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore and one of the leading physicians is Chas. Alexander Brown."

"We have all read about Florence Nightingale and her wonderful work among the sick and now we have others doing the same humane work. Helen Bost and Amelia Litaker will train at Walter Reid Hospital in Washington and will be sent as Medical Missionaries to India."

"You, along with countless hundreds of other girls, mourned the untimely death of Rudolph Valentino. His place on the silver screen will be filled by Bernard Julian."

"Hollywood will greet with open arms Doris Miller, when she too, enters the realm of picture land."

"I am sure that you will want to know something of the future Farm Life School. Nettie Morgan and her husband, a Methodist minister, will be in charge and will devote their time and talents to the education of the youth of Rowan County."

Mrs. Castleberry stopped and I becoming impatient asked her to finish telling me the future of my classmates.

She replied, "You have in your class a young man who will be our future Senator. He is tall and large. His oratory will sway the galleries and his influence for good, will be great. His name isn't clear to me but I seem to see the name Doy." "Doy Edwards," I cried. "Keep quiet child so that I may finish your prophecy for you," said the dear old lady.

She poured some fresh tea and again absorbed in her thoughts. She shuddered and drew her shawl more closely around her shoulders, then began, "Life isn't always sweet. We must have some clouds to make us appreciate the sunshine. Some bitterness along with the sweetness. Everything goes by contrast, so I cannot keep a little tragedy out of this prophecy. You asked me to tell you what I see and this is what it is."

"A train speeding through the black darkness of night, rain falling in torrents. Lightning cutting through the sky. It is one of the worse storms ever experienced in this part of the country. With the suddenness of a rifle shot comes the crash. The train has been derailed by a loosed cross-tie. Human cries for help are heard. Hubert Parks, Archie Graham, Hope Ritchie, Rebecca Sloope and Margaret Goodnight are among the first to render aid to the injured. They are returning home after having spent several months on a trip around the world with a party of friends. For their heroic work they are each presented with a Carnegie medal."

The Harrot

"Sue Brumley will be elected dean in Misses Spence's school for girls and as usual Sue will be a leader in her chosen work."

"It is improbable to suppose that all 35 of your classmates will choose public life and my tea leaves show that Ruth Smith and Kathryn Upright will be happy brides soon after graduation."

"One of the boys, Claudius Lipe, will till the soil for his livelihood. While Fred Nesbit will teach agriculture at old Farm Life."

"Lucille Templeton will become happily married to Lord Cecil De' Armond and will be a charming hostess in London England."

"Beulah Venon Hurley will be buyer for Efrd's chain consisting of 50 stores."

"Rachel Sloop's good luck will be to fall heir to quite a tidy sum of money and in her unselfish way she expects to establish an orphanage in Salisbury. With the help and support of Gladys Trexler, she will care for many orphan children."

"The county demonstrators do a wonderful work, bringing help and encouragement to the tired housewife and I find Ether Shuping making a success as a demonstrator."

"Child I wish I could give you your dearest wish, but I can only tell you what is in the tea leaves. They say that you and Loma Sloop will share the chair of Mathematics in Smith College where both of you will send out hundreds of girls fitted for life. I hope I have helped you and may God bless you is the prayer of an old woman." I thanked her and returned to my home to write her prophecies while they were still clear to me. I am sorry that I could not have brought her here and had her to tell them to you in person as she would have them more interesting, but I pass them on to you as best I can.

I am sure there are some here who will discredit these predictions and I at one time would have laughed at them but if you could have been with me and have seen this dear old lady studying her leaves so earnestly you would have known that she honestly believed she was peering into the future and you would have joined me in my hearty "I thank you." We are sure that no one knows anything positive of the future. However, dear classmates, read your hearts and see if Mrs. Castleberry did not read in her tea leaves your secret desires, and ambitions.

—Eloise Landers.

Senior Class Poem

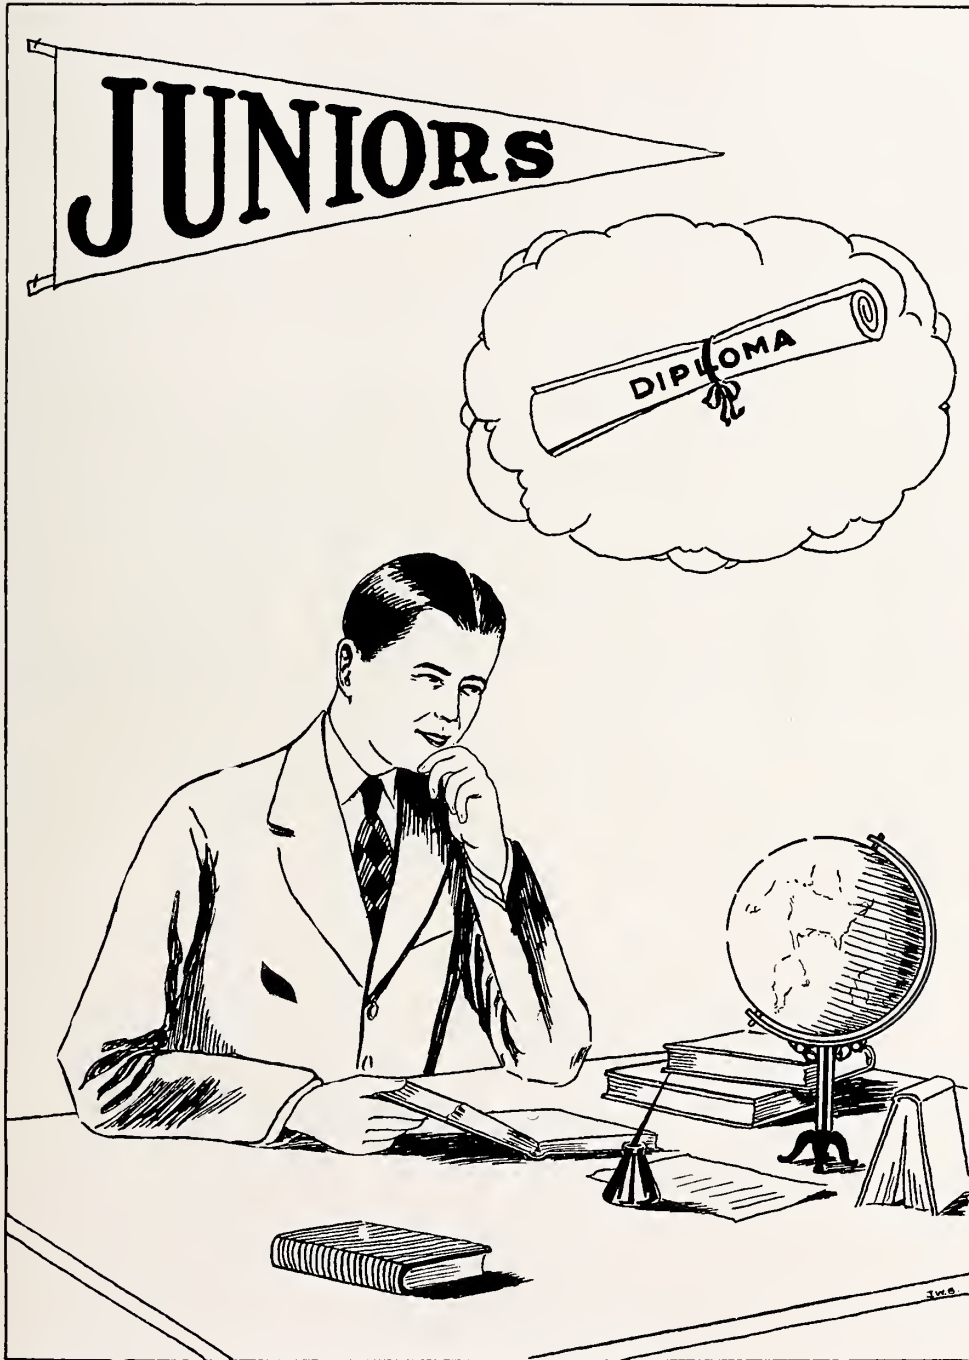

The time has come to say goodbye
And we must part with friends so dear;
Yet we will have kind thoughts of them,
Of friends we loved while we were here.

Our class has always been a group
Of boys and girls who go to school,
To learn the things that are worth while;
To master English as a tool.

We love our teachers very much;
To them we give our thoughts and ear.
We hope to make them proud to say;
"I taught that class their Senior year."

When we have reached the utmost height
And cast a glance back o'er our life
Then we will stop at once and say;
"I got my start at Old Farm Life."

The Sophomore Class History

In September, 1925, when we first came to the Farm Life School, we were as ignorant of the "ropes" of high school as Freshmen always are. However, we soon began to catch on, and the class had it's part in everything the school did. Miss Worsham was our class adviser.

Although we had a good time when we were Freshmen, we were glad to take the place of that name, the honorable appellation of "Sophomores," at the beginning of our second year at the Farm Life School.

The Sophomore Class is very fortunate in having Jerry Ritchie for its President; also in having Miss Jones and Mr. Karriker for class advisers.

We feel that fate has smiled kindly upon us in the past, and we are confident that our future days at the Farm Life School will be both pleasant and helpful.

Teacher's Training Department

In the summer of 1923 a Teacher Training department was organized at the Farm Life School. This department was one of the eight similar ones which the State Board of Education has established in various high schools throughout North Carolina. Mrs. T. E. Johnston, State Director of Teacher Training, was largely instrumental in securing this department for this particular location.

Twelve girls from the various county high schools enrolled for the first year, namely: Nell Deal Frye, Irene Bostian, Mary Sechler, Elizabeth Tiernan, Louise Cooke, Mabel Potts, Bertie Grubb, Pearle Furr, Nora Earnhardt, Myrtle Barger, and Josephine Safrit.

In the following year there were ten girls who entered the department, namely: Margaret Atkins, Temperance Hughes, Lorene Winecoff, Thelma Jones, Ruth Pierce, Hazel Sloope, Elizabeth Norris, Ethel Lippard, Ophelia Shives and Clara Stultz.

In 1925-1926 the following students finished the course, namely: Grace Allen, Allene Bickette, Martha Clemence, Lucy Cook, Mary Frick, Vada Kenerly, Annie Marlin, Mary Lou Murdock, Mary Norman, Mabel Owens, Grace Patterson, Mary Smith, Myrtle Walker and Mary White.

The course is comprised of Pedagogy, Observation and Practice Teaching, English, History, Arithmetic, Geography, Public School Music, Writing, Drawing, Industrial Arts and Physical Education.

Graduates of standard high schools and holders of the Elementary Class B Certificate who successfully passed this work will be issued the Elementary Class A Certificate valid for five years.

The three state Normal schools grant approximately two thirds of a year's credit for the one year course in Teacher Training which makes it possible to complete the two year normal course at these institutions in forty-eight weeks, and then secure the Primary or Grammar Grade Class B Certificate.

THE G. N. K. CLUB.

To begin with let us tell you that we are an unusual group of folks. Oh, well, you say we look ordinary enough, that we do not deny. We do ordinary things all along with the rest of you except on Wednesday from 10:30 to 11:30 o'clock. That time we spend G. N. K.-ing. Nothing against that, we are the G. N. K. Club and we hope to remain an honorary member of such a club as long as we live. Other folks call us the "Reading Club." The very idea of such a thing puts the ordinary individual to sleep, but that is just their ignorance of what really can be done in a reading club.

Our Motto is: "Read, read, and read some more." It's one way of learning and a sure way too if you keep at it.

Our club is made of students from every class in school. We are proud of the work we are doing and hope to do more in the future.

ACCORDING TO COACH KARRIKER:

Football at Farm Life was not a success this year when we look at the won and lost columns. But, we must take into consideration that none of the boys had ever played football, and in many cases had never seen a game. Not until then, will we realize that we had a very successful season. We could not hope to win the majority of our games when we were contesting with teams that have played football for several years. However, when we met teams that were as young at the game as we were, we gave a good account of ourselves. In all cases, whether we were winning or losing, we endeavored to play the game fair and square, a name, which after all counts more than anything else.

Future Outlook on Athletics

The new Gymnasium is only the dawn of future athletic possibilities at Farm Life. This additional building will be located just back of the Boys' dormitory, facing the Main street between the Boys dormitory and the Administration building. The dimensions are 100 feet by 60 feet. The gymnasium will be convenient both to the showers and the athletic field.

On the inside, our gymnasium will provide a regulated basketball court, with ample room for spectators. At one end there will be a stage and dressing room for plays and other large public gatherings. The seating capacity of the auditorium will range about eight hundred. The auditorium will be equipped with folding chairs.

All of the plans for the building have been made and passed upon by the Board. The funds for carrying out the plans have been appropriated by the Faculty, Student Body, Alumni Association and Board. The only step lacking in the completion of our ideal gymnasium is signing the contract.

The next important asset to our athletic possibilities, is the athletic field, which is under construction now. The chain gang will grade the field until it is perfectly level, fitting it for football and baseball. When the present plans have been completed we will have one of the best athletic fields in the state. Our outlook on the individual phases of athletics is very bright as a whole.

This past season was our first in football and according to Coach Karriker it was a very successful one. The team next year will be practically the same line-up. With this years experience and the new athletic field F. L. S. is expecting to meet the best teams in the state and hold her own.

Basketball, especially, seems to have a very bright future—with the handicap of outdoor court our teams have held their own. A good indoor court will enable them to do much better in the future.

The past season was a very successful one for the boys' team. With the exception of two all will be back next year. With the indoor court and past experience F. L. S. is expecting great things from the "Big Five."

The 1927 girls' basketball team was one of the best in this section. Next year will find every member of the team in her place. According to Coach Jones, the material is sufficient in quality and quantity to make a future champion team.

The baseball team for 1927 will be made up for the most part of new men. We are expecting a very good team this season, but with the loss of most of the old players, it will be weakened, as new ones must be trained. With the new field in view great interest and enthusiasm has been aroused.

Looking over our past records in track we find a better one every year. With the present material, our aim is to continue to win the county track meet every year. As in every other phase of athletics, our outlook is very encouraging.

During the past five years Farm Life has established an athletic standard, that is recognized by any of the high schools in this section as being one of clean and fair play. The policy of the school is to establish the reputation of gentlemanly men and lady-like women who play the game fairly, squarely and to always show good sportsmanship in victory or defeat.

MERCHANTS AND FARMERS BANK

LANDIS, N. C.

To The Class of '27

By a Famous Poet, Mr. Doy A. Edwards.

Please don't rave about my poetry
For I'm already shaking
Just say about me
"He's a poet in the making."

I'll never make a poet
I'm getting worse and worse
Folks would laugh at me
If I would write a verse.

Dear Senior Class keep kicking
For there will come a time
When our hearts will almost cease ticking
Because they will our diplomas sign.

Keep on pulling forward
And do not look around
Be ready to go still faster
If you should hear a sound.

And on our tombstone
Shall always be seen
Here lies the body
Of a Working Machine.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB ENTERTAINS.

An occasion which proved to be a very delightful one was the Halloween party given on Friday, October 29, 1927, by the Girls' Physical Education Club in honor of the Boys' Football Team and Faculty.

The club rooms were very appropriately decorated with things suggestive of Holloween. Fortune telling, apple bobbing and various other contests, games, etc., were enjoyed during the evening.

One very interesting feature was the Grand March in which Miss Simpson and Howard Templeton were awarded the prize for the best costumes.

Messrs. Snuggs and Cato were awarded a big stick of candy as a prize for the best original stunt which represented a typical football game of 1930.

The party finally wound up with a big marshmallow and winnie roast over two large bonfires out on the campus.

BUSY BEE CLUB PICNIC.

The B. B. Club and some members of the faculty of Farm Life School met at the Girls' Dormitory Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock to go on a picnic. A truck and cars were used to carry us to Corriher Springs.

As soon as we reached the picnic ground, the boys gathered wood and made a fire, then they joined us in playing games. We played until darkness drew near and warned us that it was getting late. We spread the lunch on a table near the fire and everyone enjoyed the picnic supper. The occasion was a success and the reputation of the Busy Bee Club for good cooking and good entertaining was established for all time.
